“Integration between School and Community – a Struggle against Exclusion”

CONCLUSIONS

IUSDT supports the CIEP-schools in Brazil and states that the Special Education Program is an important phase in developing a just and equal society with right of education for every child.

Concern about education in Africa

- the first step in the struggle against exclusion is to create conditions that allow general access to education to all children, it is a precondition for democracy and peace

Humanitarian actions should be taken to support the Rwanda refugees, especially children

IUSDT condemns violence in Algeria

IUSDT emphasises the importance of equality between genders and the struggle against legal discrimination of women in the field of education.

Demand of education for children in former Yugoslavia.

Appeal of improvement of education in Brazil.
